Lodestar Training - LTM Motor School

Thank you for your interest in the LTM Lodestar Motor School which offers two days of intense tuition.

The next Motor School will take place on 12th and 13th November 2008.

The course will cover the following:

- General electrical theory
- Overview of the Columbus McKinnon Lodestar Hoist
- How to operate a Lodestar correctly
- Hoist assembly and disassembly
- Maintenance
- Troubleshooting and fault finding on faulty motors
- Health & Safety
- Questions & Answers

We intend to run two or three Motor Schools per year at our premises in Birkenhead, Wirral.

Each offers about 16 places which will allow two people to work on each hoist. The course is presented in a hands-on, no-nonsense, practical manner. Places are limited to ensure that attendees receive maximum attention and please note that only two places can be booked by any one company.

The course provides a comprehensive overview of the CM Lodestar hoist. It will familiarise users and specifies with operational theory, design philosophy, safety aspects, internal workings and trouble-shooting methods of the Lodestar.

Please note the course is designed around maintenance rather than operation of hoist!

It offers the chance to get dirty and completely strip a hoist down to its component parts – and then re-build and operate it, thereby unravelling the mysteries of the machine in the process! A full set of manuals and course notes is also provided.

Overnight accommodation is difficult to arrange close to our works; we think it best for attendees to stay in Liverpool. The evening meal will also be in Liverpool.

We are located close to Central Station in Birkenhead (on the Wirral underground line). We detail possible hotels that could be booked.

You can either get the train across to Birkenhead Central Station (LTM is 200 yards away) or drive through the Mersey Tunnel (toll £1.30 each way).
